General Announcements:

- On Thursday, December 14th, a former Park Center student and first generation college student who has completed her Masters degree and is working for Augsburg University will be in the CCRC at 8:30AM to share her experience as a college student. The discussion will include transition into college, living on campus, what class schedules are like, studying abroad, organization involvement, financial aid, and work/school life balance. Students can sign up in the CCRC to meet this successful PC alumni.
- All boys interested in joining swimming and diving team this year should attend an informational meeting on Thursday, November 16th at 7:00PM in the pool area.
- Do you want to help with a Pepfest? Do you have Pirate pride? Do you want to liven school spirit? Student Advisory Committee is looking for three freshman to participate in the next pepfest. For more information and an application go to room 309 or see any SAC member. Applications are due by November 13th at 2:00PM.
- Need a quiet place to study or do homework? How about a place to get homework help from some of Park Center's very own teachers? Well you're in luck because the Homework Center is officially open 2:00-4:00PM on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays! It takes place in room 233. Don't forget to sign up in the Student Support Office!
