General Announcements:

- Historically Black College and University tours are one of the best ways for college-bound high school students to witness the Black College experience first hand. Students traveling on the tours can not only expect to get a taste of college life but also receive curriculum information, entrance requirements, financial aid and scholarship resources. On Friday, December 7th at 12:00PM, the CCRC is hosting an informational meeting about HBCU tours. Come and see how you can be a part of one. Sign up in the CCRC to attend.
- Do you have an interest in working in the healthcare field, but you're not quite sure of what careers are out there? If that sounds like you, consider applying and joining other diverse Minnesota sophomore and junior high school students at the week-long Career Immersion Program in health professions at the premier Mayo Clinic - all expenses paid by the Mayo Clinic. Come and hear about their fantastic program on Tuesday, December 18th at 11:00AM in the CCRC. Sign up for a pass.
- Are you interested in traveling to Mexico for free? Are you willing to live and work in a community different from yours? Are you ready for the trip of a life time? Fill out the online application for the Park Center Summer 2019 Mexico Trip! The deadline to apply is midnight Friday, December 7th. Information will be available on the Park Center home page and from your teachers. For specific questions, please see Mrs. Neri or Mr. Madsen, Spanish teachers.
- Angie Thomas, author of The Hate U Give, will be meeting with us via Skype during C lunch on Thursday, Dec. 13th. If you have C lunch, you can just show up. If you don't, but want to participate, you will need to complete an in-school field trip request form beforehand, available at tinyurl.com/PcThugInterview. Come ask her about the book, the movie, or the topics of racial profiling and police violence.
- The second session of the Park Center Book Club begins on Thursday, Dec. 6. We will be reading "I Am Malala." To join, come to the Forum Room during your lunch or stop in to the Learning Commons to ask Mr. Hilgendorf for your lunch pass and a copy of the book.

- Do you like to work with your hands? Are you interested in working in construction? Perhaps an apprenticeship is for you. You can earn a great hourly wage while you are learning trade. Join us in the CCRC on Friday, December 14th at 8:00AM when we host a visit from people in the construction industry who will be talking about the great opportunities available for you!
  - Do you have an interest in working in the healthcare field, but you're not quite sure of what careers are out there?
