General Announcements

- 2% of people change the world. 2% of women choose an all-women's college. An admissions rep for St. Kate's will be in the CCRC on Wednesday, March 22nd at 1:00PM to discuss "Why choose an all women college?" Sign up to attend.
- There are several excellent local scholarship opportunities available to Park Center students. These scholarships have application deadlines that are quickly approaching. Pick up applications and the scholarship bulletin in the CCRC today.
- National Honor Society applications are now being accepted! NHS at Park Center is open to juniors with a 3.5 GPA or higher who are also able to demonstrate exemplary leadership, service, and character. NHS is in charge of SnoDaze, blood drives, set up and tear down for conferences, and other service activities. Applications are due Wednesday, April 5th, at 2:00PM. Instructions were mailed to your home and are also available on the PC website. Late applications will not be accepted. Talk to Ms. Gagnon if you have any questions.
- There will be a Law Enforcement Opportunities Career Fair on Wednesday, April 12th from 10:00AM - 3:00PM at the Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice Education Center at Hennepin Technical College. 35 Agencies will be in attendance. There will be demonstrations from the Crime Lab, Weapons of Mass Destruction Unit, the K-9 Team, Emergency Services Unit and more! Stop by the CCRC for registration information.
- Are you interested in a career in the automotive repair industry? A representative from Hennepin Technical College Automotive department will be here on Monday, March 20th at 1:00PM to talk about their Auto Body Collision Technology program. Sign up in the CCRC to attend.
- Augsburg College is hosting a Hmong Campus Visit Day on March 30th from 3:30PM - 6:30PM. Students, parents, and families can learn about the admission process, financial aid, speak to the advising team, and listen to Hmong students speak about their college experience! This event is open to high school students (grades 9-12). Dinner will be provided. RSVP at Augsburg.edu.
- Readers take note! Teen Lit Con is taking place on Saturday, May 6th. National and local authors gather with teens for a day of free workshops and fun activities focused on reading and writing. This year's authors include Jay Asher (13 Reasons Why), Meg Medina (Burn Baby Burn), and Kao Kalia Yang (The Late Homecomer). For more information, go to teenlitcon.com or chat with Mr. Hilgendorf in the Learning Commons.

- Seniors, is your plan in place for next year or are you still unsure about what you will be doing? Now is the time to stop by the CCRC to learn about the many options that are available for you.
- The CCRC hosts visits from many college admission reps in the spring. This is a great time for juniors to start gathering information about programs, admissions requirements, tuition, housing and more so you will be prepared to start your college applications next fall. Watch the CCRC Newsletter, TV screens in the cafeteria and the board outside the CCRC for a list reps. Sign up in the CCRC for a pass.
- There will be additional College Possible information sessions on Thursday March 16th, and Monday and Tuesday, the 20th and 21st. All sessions will be held in the Learning Commons starting at 2:15PM.
- Trimester III parking permits are on sale now. Starting March 13th, parking permits will be available for $45 dollars from Ms. Hennen in attendance office. Vehicles without parking permits in the parking lot are subject to be towed; please be sure you get your parking permits now.
- Seniors don't forget to turn in the registrations for the Senior All Night Party! Forms can be downloaded from the school website or from the PC Senior All Night Party Facebook page.
- Tryouts for next year's Varsity and JV Competition and Sideline Cheer Team will be March 21st -24th from 4:30-7:30PM in the Park Center Wrestling Room. All girls currently in 7th - 11th grade are welcome to try out. You must attend two or more of these sessions in order to attend the final tryout day on Saturday March 25th from 9:00AM-12:00PM. For more information contact the Park Center Activities Office.
- Students interested in joining the Pirate Wrestling Club should plan to attend a meeting with their parents on Tuesday, March 21st at 7:00PM in the Park Center Cafeteria. No wrestling experience is needed and all are welcome! It's free to join; practices will be on Tuesday and Thursday nights.
- Baseball, Boys' Golf and Girls' Golf will start on Monday, March 20th. Contact the Activities Office to make sure you are registered!
- Baseball registration is open to all 7th-12th grade students. Tryouts begin on March 20th.
